EDUCATION
Minimum Education Requirements for Admission to Midwifery Education Program	Bachelor's degree from accredited college/university 1. Some programs require RN license. If the applicant has a bachelor's degree, but not an RN license, some programs will require attainment of an RN license prior to entry into the midwifery program; others will allow the student to attain an RN license prior to graduate study; OR 2. If the applicant is an RN but does not have a bachelor's degree, some programs provide a bridge program to a bachelor's degree prior to the midwifery portion of the program; other programs require a bachelor's degree before entry into the midwifery program.	Bachelor's degree from accredited college/university and successful completion of specific science courses	There are two primary pathways for CPM education, with differing admission requirements: 1. Portfolio Evaluation Process (PEP) pathway: an apprenticeship program; no degree or diploma required. Student must find a midwife preceptor who is nationally certified or state licensed, has practiced for at least 3 years, and attended at least 50 out-of-hospital births; OR 2. Accredited formal education pathway: For this pathway, a high school diploma from an accredited state or private school is required for admission.
	Note: Currently, the majority of AMCB-certified midwives enter midwifery through nursing.		Note: Currently, the majority of CPMs have completed the apprenticeship-only (PEP) pathway to the CPM credential.
